

It is horrible that Mr. Powell is using the tragedies of September 11 to repeal the cross-ownership ban. It is NOT in the publics best interest to allow companies to own both newspaper companies and television stations in the same town. The consequences of lifting this ban are predictable and devastating.

If it is in the publics best interest, why is Michael Powell trying to lift the ban when the nation is distracted by war? I am truly disgusted with Michael Powell and his cowardly act.
